

April 22, 2010

Washington, DC – This weekend, Rep. Ben Ray Luján will travel to Taos, Las Vegas and Santa Fe. In Taos, Rep. Luján will attend the welcome home ceremony for the New Mexico National Guard 1115th Transportation Company. He will then travel to Cochiti Pueblo to dedicate a water system funded by the USDA through a Rural Development Native American set-aside grant. On Saturday, Rep. Luján will meet with the New Mexico Highlands Student Government. Following the meeting, he will travel to Santa Fe to attend an Earth Day recognition event.

Friday

What: Rep. Luján Attends Welcome Home Ceremony for the New Mexico National Guard 1115th Transportation Company

When: Friday, April 23, 2010, 10:15-11:45 am (MT)

Where: Taos National Guard Armory, 1145 State Road 570, Ranchos de Taos, NM

What: USDA Water and Waste Disposal Grant to Pueblo de Cochiti

When: Friday, April 23, 2010, 3:00-4:00 pm (MT)

Where: 245 Cochiti Street, Hahn Center, Cochiti Pueblo, NM

Saturday

What: Rep. Luján Meets with New Mexico Highlands University Student Government

When: Saturday, April 24, 2010, 10:45-11:11 am (MT)

Where: New Mexico Highlands University Student Center, Las Vegas, NM

What: Rep. Luján Attends Santa Fe Earth Day Recognition

When: Saturday, April 24, 2010, 1:00-2:00 pm (MT)

Where: The Community Farm and San Isidro Park, 1829 San Isidro Crossing, Santa Fe, NM